A FREE St Piran's Trail around Newquay for all the family to take part!

Pick up your map from the Visit Newquay Tourist Information Centre, Marcus Hill, TR7 1BD.

St Piran has made a trail around Newquay and he is inviting you to help discover the 'Cornish' word. The map will take you to different locations around Newquay, where you will find a poster with a letter on it. All you have to do is work out the word the letters spell and bring your clue sheet back to the Visit Newquay Tourist Information Centre to collect your prize.

Go! Peren Lowen / Happy St Piran's Day

We once again thank Newquay BID for their support and this year FEAST Cornwall whose support has again enabled events to be mostly free.

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Cornish people being legally acknowledged as a national minority under the Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities giving Cornish people the same status and protection as the other Celtic peoples of the UK, Scottish, Welsh and Irish. Cornwall still doesn't get a national holiday on 5th March but with greater support maybe soon.
